IS FOR LOVE & LIFE

NOT FOR COFFIN Part 1

Your marriage can still do well in a divorce prone country with either 40% or over 65% divorce rate!* If you live in a divorce prone country, community or family, where,

1) Self is idolized and given the uppermost place than the will of God.

2) Family culture and values are being eroded, and people have lost touch with God all because of comfort.

Your marriage can still be made to be different, that is, become a symbol of envy and worth emulating.

All you need to do is to:

1) Put God first place in all you do.

2) Keep his word uppermost in your life.

3) Love your wife unconditionally. or submit to your husband unconditionally.

4) Be apologetic and repentant when you make mistakes and hurt your spouse.

5) Don't put your feelings of hurts above the word of God, and above the good things your spouse has done for you.

6) Have a reconciliatory heart. always ensure your anger or that of your spouse don't hangover to the next day. Avoid malice; it is Satan's poison that comes with symptoms of separation or divorce.

7) Forgive through the grace, mercy and love of god for you, before it becomes a family meeting affair, and in turn public later.

8) Never build on your spouse's weakness or mistakes to overshadow his or her good parts or potential. we all have our weak and strong areas.

9) Stop taking major decisions alone. let your spouse know your heart. be transparent.

10) Share your finances and assets with your spouse. This should be both ways. this is what good friends...

A NEW Name

Bible passages 62 v 2, 4 and 5

What we call ourselves matter also, if you call yourself worthless because of your situation, or call yourself pathetic, it will shape how you relate with others. I have good news for you that what God calls you truly matter, it matters more than our own inadequacy, our view of ourselves.

Do you call yourself forsaken, rejected, desolate, failure, poor, sickler, debtor, barren etc. what you felt in your gut and believe has shaped how you see yourself.

I have come to declare to you today that you are loved, you are God's beloved, He is delighted in you, you are chosen, married and blessed. God is changing your name; you are no longer wounded, outcast, lonely or afraid. Your new name shall be confidence, joyful, overcoming one, faithfulness, and friend of God, one who seek my face.

God changed Abram to Abraham Gen 17 v 5
Sarah changed to Sarah Gen 17 v 15
Jacob name changed to Israel Gen 32 v28
And so many to mention a few. There is something about a name we are called.

WHAT IS A NAME?

A name is a word or set of words by which a person, animal, place or things is known. Let me begin by reminding you that God revealed his own character through his names. Yahweh-Jireh means the lord who provides (Gen 22 v 14). Shalom - lord of wholeness (judges 6 v 24) Jehovah Mekedesh - lord who sanctifies (Ezekiel 37 v 28). Yahweh means the one who is or I am that I am. The name of God matters as it define him, so our names matter too because they define who we are in many ways. What other call you matter, they matter because in our woundedness we assimilate those

Prayers

Lord I thank you for the new name you have given me in Christ.

Lord I disassociate myself, my life, my destiny from every wrong name.

I set myself free by fire from every evil attached to every wrong name in my life.

Lord let my new name attract me to the best things you have for me in life in Jesus name.

Woman of Influence Column

LEADING WELL AS A WOMAN OF INFLUENCE PART 1

A woman of Influence is not about those who are enjoying their old lifestyle, but it is about those who know the extraordinary times we are living in now. A woman who instead of settling with what they have achieved, go for more. One who remain standing and sowing their lives so that the kingdom of God keeps growing one who is currently rising and daring to be different, seeing possibilities and the doings of God? Our world is crying out of Hope but not just any kind of Hope but the Godly one. We need women who are equipped, bold, daring, innovator, a warrior and not averse to risk, setting examples that are still worthy to follow. Will you be that woman? I would like to invite you to explore with me in this short article.

What you need is in you.

Take time to discover your strength! Over the years, by the grace of God I've ministered in many conferences, seminars and other gatherings for women in USA, Europe, UK, African primarily about the different ways women have been hurt, humiliated and mistreated but also about how God has always desired to heal us. This is very necessary however; I sometimes ask myself "what comes after all these events, fulfilling God's purpose for our life or what we've achieved? But how can we achieve this in a world that is changing at this fast pace, in our churches, business, or even government. We've been surrounded by an imperfect world which is full of trouble where God has sent us to help solve things and make a difference. But above all where God wants us to fulfill His purpose despite all the situations that you and I may go through as women.

As a woman spend your time on your strengths, because there's nothing weak about you that cannot be solved with what is strong about you. Your strengths are God's gift to you, discover, develop and deploy them to become the unusual woman. If you are familiar with Esther's story, she was asked to do something very difficult in order to help bring deliverance to her people. Most likely, she did not feel like being in the challenging place where God had put her. She probably did not want the responsibility, nor did she want to risk the personal harm she knew could come to her. Esther was young with her whole life ahead of her and being asked to follow instructions from the Lord that seemed very dangerous, but she discovered her God given strengths. You will begin to find it easy to eliminate unnecessary distractions. Knowing that you can't focus on everything..... to be continued on pg16

LEADING WELL AS A WOMAN OF INFLUENCE PART 2

Seize and act on the opportunities God's brings your way. Mordecai, who was speaking to Esther on God's behalf, told her that she must not keep silent. If she did, people will perish, and she was called to the kingdom for the very task that lay before her. Do you sometimes wonder about your position in life, why you are where you are? God placed us where we are for His purposes, and Esther is a powerful example of this truth. She seized the opportunity without FEAR. God sends us many opportunities to do great things, but many times we are not sensitive enough to locate our opportunities. Please look for opportunities around you, in your neighborhood, your workplace, even your Home for ways the Lord wants you to partner with Him in the work of His kingdom.

Seek to Honor God

Don't just do anything to be accepted, but more so to be productive with the right focus. If you are focused on people's acceptance you will become bitter and you will have a wounded heart. Don't do anything for someone else to value or accept you. Do you want to have a healthy heart? Don't do anything expecting something back from people; your reward comes from Heaven. Let your motive always be to honor God. Arise woman of God so the generations that will come after you will be blessed and will enjoy the blessings thanks to the decision you made not to settle for less but more in order to change your story and theirs!

Rise, Soar, Influence and Transformed!

What It Means To Have ABUNDANT BLESSINGS IN CHRIST JESUS. PART 1A:

When believers talk about abundant life in Christ, they share some common beliefs and have points where their ideas diverge, as a Wikipedia article attests! But Scripture is clear that our new life is a reality. Second Corinthians 5:17 talks about this life when it says, “Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, they are a new creation. Old things have passed away and new things have come.” And Jesus calls that life “abundant” in John 10:10.

So what does this new life look like? Ask 10 Christians to define abundant life and you will get 14 answers. And perhaps they are all right in some way, but, if we are being true with Scriptures, the new life given to us in Christ must mean more than merely materially blessings.

Abundance is not What Some Think

The powerful passage of Hebrews 11 highlights people of great faith and blessing, but also tells us that many believers were tortured, mocked, scourged, imprisoned, stoned, sawn in two, destitute, mistreated and homeless. The writer says the world was not worthy of these saints. They were approved through their faith, but they did not receive what was promised. Does that sound like abundant life? Is that prosperity? And yet, we find that these struggling people spoke of a deep-seeded joy.

Paul himself, who penned the oft-quoted “exceedingly abundant” phrase, did a fair amount of writing of joy and peace in the middle of his own difficult circumstances. He used terminology like, “My God shall supply all of my needs according to His riches in glory.” Paul found his life sufficiency in Christ. But what are these “riches in glory” to which he refers...part 1b to be continued on Page 30&32

EVERYTHING IS SUBJECT TO Change

Pastor Kayode
ABODERIN

Everything is subject to change under the atmosphere of God's word.

"For I am the Lord: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God." Ezekiel 12:25

I have learnt to trust God's word over the years. I have seen it work again and again in my life and in that of others. You can confidently rely on it and it will not fail you. The problem with many is they don't trust God enough to believe His word. I was born a sickler with my genotype as SS. I gave my life to Christ in July 12, 1978 and got healed in September 1981 of the sickle cell and other terrible sicknesses. My genotype changed to AS. These happened not because somebody laid hands on me (this is not to belittle the ministry of laying on of hands but to bring out a point) but by standing consistently on God's word through continuous meditation and confession. Change did not happen immediately but God brought His word to come to pass in my life.

The word of God will work for you if you can trust God from your heart. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart; and lean not unto your own understanding." Proverbs 3:5. Your head will always tell you that nothing has changed physically after you have prayed. Jesus said, "Therefore I say unto you, what things so ever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." Mark 11:24. The place of receiving after prayer believes. "... Believe that you receive them", it hasn't come to pass physically yet but He said, "... and ye shall have them."

What many lack is the patient to keep holding on God's word. This has led many to start devising many sense knowledge means to why the prayers have not been answered. It is not much about God nor the devil but you. The worst that can be said is that some strong enemies are fighting you. We have put many dear children of God in fear instead of faith. No enemy, not even the devil can overpower a child of God who learns to trust God in His word. Whatever you may need right now, I trust God to touch it in the name of Jesus.

Crisis & Man

By Pastor Comfort Ogie

Job 14:1, Declare that man that is born of a woman is but of a few days and is full of trouble. Crisis is part of man struggle right from Genesis 3:1 when man fall into sin. The earth is not a Comfort zone but a war zone, even life itself will not give you what you deserve in, even before then it records that the more their enemy afflict them, the more they multiply.

Crisis is not a threat to a child of God; it is part of the process Gods people go through to get to their destinations. No child born to this earth without a process of pain, no champion, Victor, winner that does not confront crisis called challenge, they overcame and became what we call them, whether political crisis, national crisis, ethnic crisis or global, it has been part of man's raise and men of understanding has been moving victoriously to the next level.

In conclusion you can live victoriously in the midst of crisis and fulfill your God given destiny depending your understanding Roman 8:28. As face as the earth remains crisis will continue but to a child of God it's a piece of cake. All you need is God and if you have not allowed him into your life now is the right time to accept the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffered violence, and the violent take it by force. Crisis is one of the instrument God uses to move his children forward to the next phase of life Exo 1:8-14, The children of Israel did not move to their promise land in a Comfort zone it take crisis to move them out and it take crisis to t a k e t h e m

WHY OUR GOD DESERVES Worship

We are clearly commanded to worship GOD. Psalm 95:6 proclaims, "Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before thye LORD, our Maker!" First Chronicles 16:29 states "Ascribe to The LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering and come before him! Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness." John 4:23-24 notes, "The father is seeking such people to worship him. GOD is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." Romans 12:1 instruct, "I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of GOD, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to GOD, which is your spiritual worship." Worship is more than singing; it is a life posture of honoring GOD through obedience and acknowledgment of HIS worth. Worship is not an option; it is a command. Even in the last days, Revelation 15:4 teaches that all will worship The LORD: "Who will not fear, O LORD, and glorify your name? For you alone is Holy. All nations will come and worship you, for your righteous acts have been revealed."

Why does GOD expect worship from people? He is the Creator of all things, including every person (Genesis 1). In addition, GOD is the sustainer of all life: "And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together" (Colossians 1:17). Further, GOD has provided a way for salvation through JESUS CHRIST (John 3:16; Romans 5:8).

The LORD is the only true GOD (John 17:3). There is no other GOD, person, or created thing that should receive allegiance in the place of The LORD. He is our Creator, Sustainer, and salvation. GOD deserves our worship, and we are wise to entrust our lives and our worship to HIM.

Worship is desired and demanded by The LORD thorough belief in JESUS CHRIST. In Christianity Worship is the expected way of life. GOD who has saved believers from their sins is completely worthy of all worship, both in this life and for all eternity.

We freely worship The LORD because we love HIM and because HE DESERVES OUR WORSHIP!

To understand thus statement we must first define worship. Worship means to honor or praise. GOD is the one perfect being in the entire universe, completely worthy of worship. Thus He requests, seeks, and demands that His creation honor HIM. We are taught to worship no other god or idol. Exodus 34:14 clearly states, "For you shall worship no other god, for The LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God." Deuteronomy 12:31 adds that those who follow The LORD must worship according to HIS ways, not the ways of those who worship other gods: "You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way."

- 14). Help your spouse to enjoy sex in the bedroom; even sometimes when you don't feel like. Agape (God's divine love) is capable of making you give away your interest or feelings just to make your spouse very happy. It is better not to use your unhappiness to make your spouse become unhappy. Remember, agape is divinely sacrificial.

 - 23) Don't engage in "text war"(using your phone to send provocative and counter missiles. Instead send "i love you" messages.
 - 24). Avoid telling an opposite sex how much your spouse has starved you of sex inspite of your love for her. Satan will set you up for sin, if you are not careful.
 - 25). Go for counseling with a seasoned minister of the gospel and a marriage counselor, when marriage is threatened. Deal with your negative attitudes now, watch out and learn how to handle your spouse's negative attitudes.

MANIFESTING YOUR GLORY

Pst Femi Omotosho

To manifest means to suddenly come out of obscurity into the limelight, it means to become noticeable and be declared publicly for all to see.

Glory by definition means a shining beauty. It is also the honor, fame and the distinction accorded to a person by the God of Glory Himself.

You will all agree with me that "NO GLORY WITHOUT THE KING OF GLORY" (Isaiah 42:6)

Jesus was born as a child but something was missing in his ministry and that was HIS GLORY. But on a certain day he manifested forth that glory that was buried inside of him. John 2:11 this beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

Beloved, people will not believe you until you manifest your glory. It was obvious that Jesus had disciples but they didn't believe in him. The glory of a bird is to fly while the glory of a fish is to swim. There is something in you crying for manifestation. Inside of you is a king that wants to reign and that's the more reason why you need to groan for your glory to be birthed. Remember that it is a crime for a lion to dwell among the nominal cats and concludes that that is destiny.

As you cry aloud today, your glory will be obvious and people will from today believe in you. You have been kept for a long while but the King of Glory is saying "it is your turn to be glorified". Life is turn by turn but not according to the queue but the moment the King of glory turns to you, then it will be your turn to be glorified. You might even be shocked and asking this deep and mind-bugging question that "IS IT POSSIBLE THAT THE MANIFESTION IS NOW AND WHERE IS THAT GLORY? The good news is that the time is now and the glory is right inside of you. (Just look inward) Romans 8:18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

THE ESTEEMED WOMAN COLUMN

Are you sick and tired of being STUCK?

“Oh! I am stuck in the traffic” “My car got stuck in the mud” “That sister is stuck with that brother for life”

These statements are familiar to many of us, especially when you find yourself in an unplanned situation or position that is contrary to what you are working toward; when you are tightly fixed in a condition and you are unable to move to the next level or next phase or life/vision agendas.

The year 2020 has been such a year that no-one prepared or prayed to be involved in deadly Corona Covid-19 Virus which has brought indelible painful marks onto many. This virus got stuck and impacts peoples' life, businesses, relationships, lifestyles, health and wellness.

I will like to confide in you that seeing our dreams and visions getting stuck, at one point or the other is one of the strata that form the process of life. And this is not uncommon in the spiritual context as well. The word of God testifies to this with the story of Abraham who got stuck to the Covenant Promise of becoming the father of Nations for almost 25 years before the realization of the covenant actually came to pass. The run-away Jacob desired to go through the process to betroth to Racheal, but was stuck with the pranks and ideologies of Laban for almost 2 decades of his life. What about Joseph? How many times was his Destiny/Dream got stuck on to different 'road blocks' while heading and maneuvering his way to the palace? I can go on-and-on with factual stories of many Dreams, Visions and Relationships, Businesses that are either going through their detours or bound up with a system or literally phased out due to their inability to detach from system, process or Being Certified Life and Leadership Coach, that helps emerging leaders to overcome limitations on Visions and life Purpose, is hereby saying that ignoring a problem will never make it go away... it only makes things worse, and ultimately harder to solve. The difference between staying where you are indefinitely, and moving forward to realize your potential, is all about taking action. Using the biblical examples from above, the following steps may be adopted to overcome being unstuck, depending on what you or your visions got stuck to.

Action & Focus: None of the examples above, gave up their dreams and purposes. Not once was it written that they threw in the towel. The journey of destiny that brought them to that standstill position never made them to lose hope. They painstakingly trusted their guts to wade through the pressures of each levels of their encounters.

Adhered to Instructions and Obedient to Commands: Go to higher authority for clarity and empowerment. Abraham got instructions from Almighty God. Joseph was never disobedient to authority at every level of his “Stuck”; Bible severally say 'God was with Joseph'. As cunning as Jacob was, he obeyed the authority of Laban, at least, his first 14 years of laboring in Laban's vineyard.

Daily Refine/Explore Your Purpose and Be Ready to do the Work: Abraham, daily trusted the covenant promise. Once he got wearied, he brings the promise back to God and worked on off the roles of both Spiritual and Physical approaches to enhance their Purposes. Michael Jordan, Princess Diana, Bill Gates & Oprah Winfrey have one thing in common? They all used coaches.

BACK TO THE BASICS:

Six Steps Required Towards Genuine Salvation

Part 1A.

The apostolic gospel of salvation prepared the believer for life and not just a singular event. Hebrews 6:1-7 captures the fact that these are mere elemental but instrumental in genuine conversion. This study will help to understand why there's joy in Heaven over a saved/repentant soul. See Luke 15:7-10, 10:20-22. It is important to give people opportunity to truly capture the full measure of the process. The essence of this study includes:

1. Since we're expecting revival, everyone of us must first experience genuine regeneration and conversion and be equipped to minister same to others as master builders and servicemen see 1 Corinthians 3:10-16.

2. We must understand that failing in the Soul winning and discipleship job underrates the saving grace as it's the integral aspect of the great commission - Mathew 28:19-20

3. The holistic approach to salvation ushers in a path and pattern that helps for life unto eternity. 2 Peter 1:3-4. It involves repentance, (Mathew 4:17, Acts 2:37-39, 3:19-20), faith in Christ (Romans 10:9-10), Baptism in water, baptism in the Holy Ghost, eternal/kingdom/exemplary life (John 3:16, John 4:10-14, 10:10) and fellowship (Acts 8:36-38), (John 3:3, 5), Acts 2:42-47

4. Partial fulfillment of this basics births believers that although may be justified, still carry satanic baggage's. Demonstrate various extremes of the six basic steps and the repercussions of imbalance! Acts 19:1-6. Note that as religious as Nicodemus was in John 3:1-5 and how the disciples went to evangelism with signs following in Luke 10... They all still must be born again. Apparently one of the greatest and imminent gains of this glorious experience is the power and zeal to help other witness this joy that we experienced... This is entire experience usually commences with a knowing that no one can teach - Galatians 1:11-13. Go to John 4:25-26, 29, 39-42. Meanwhile, the main calling was a call to worship but we can't handle worship well until we know John 4:21-24. Meanwhile, religiosity turned worship into a thing of place and time; meanwhile God wants it to be a heart thing! See proverbs 23:26, see revelation 3:19-20

5. Need for restoration/redemption: Salvation saves us from self, Satan, past, future wrath, and all inclusive and not just criteria. We all are lost and salvation finds us- Luke 19:9-10, Luke 15:4-10. Naturally, man was made to contact, contain, and contract (with) God and salvation affords an opportunity to manifest this! (Note the three levels of those that are lost and Jesus willingness to save all)

6. Our salvation is intended to be to the uttermost - Hebrews 7:25. This complete experience ensures these details.to be continued on pg 28

GOSPEL GIST COLUMN:

Escape from Failure

by Pst. Isaac Akingbade

JEREMIAH 29:11" For I know the thoughts that I have towards you, says the LORD, Thought of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end". Every human being wants to be successful. The source of success is God. God has a good plan for our lives. The devil is evil and does evil. He is a destiny destroyer. 2 Chron.20:6- There is a God in Heaven who rules in the affairs of men. No matter your past failures, an end has come to failure in your life. In Luke 1:37 Bible says: "With God nothing shall be impossible". To escape from failure, let God be the foundation of all you are doing. The Orange tree cannot bring forth mango fruit. If the foundation is not right and it is of the devil, failure will be the result.

What is the foundation of your marriage, business, prosperity, joy, greatness etc. You can escape from failure today by repenting and prepare a new foundation for your life. Psalm 127:1 unless the LORD builds the house, they labor in vain that build it: unless the Lord keeps the city, the watchman wakes, but in vain". Then we need to ask for God's mercy. "It is not of him that willeth nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy".(Rom.9:16). Look at the course and adjust your life and move to success everlasting. And so be it in the Name of Jesus Christ. I pray that at the pick of success you will not fail.

Back to The Basics: SIX STEPS REQUIRED GENUINE SALVATION.

By Pst. Isreal Egesionu Part 2

7. The steps are interconnected and one step can still lead to another but should not despise another. (Despite exceptions, deliberate neglect of any steps affects the breed of Christians born therefrom). Note that these 6 steps are jointly and disjointed in manifestation but greatly connected and crucial see Acts 10:44-48

8. The goal of apostolic salvation was not in view of license or deliverance from hell but an equipping for life in the light of Christ. Its life - John 3:16, 2 Peter 1:3-4. Godly ministry is also focused on ministering life. Thus, transformation is the evidence of a living life/church and or ministry! Are you ministering life daily! It's kingdom life. It's exemplary; it's eternal and flows to others John 4:10-14. Its access and participatory salvation- (without diligence it can be lost- Jude 3-6!)...1 Timothy 4:8

9. The ultimate end of our faith is glorification and until it is attained, salvation can be lost. Call- Justification- sanctification- glorification! See Romans 8:29-30. 1 Peter 1:5, Jude 3

10. Salvation deals with the mainly first the spirit, soul, and flesh realms: see Romans 12:1-2. Transformation deals with the souls' realm. Justification and regeneration deals with the prosperity of the spirit. Conformations to Christ in the inner man see Philippians 2:5 comes in. We don't give up but persevere till the end unto the salvation of our soul see Hebrews 10:37-29.

11. Note these three phrases: I am saved, I am being saved, and I shall be saved. Balance with the finished work on the cross as per how God finishes his work before commencing! And the need for being responsible in accepting what Christ already given through hope and faith (faith works). See Romans 8:24-25, 1 Corinthians 10:1-12, Jude 3-6. The need for Christian apologetics is needed here Acts 17:1-4, see 1 Peter 3:15, Philippians 1:16-17; lifestyle is all required to balance this defense 1:27 and Colossians 1:10

12. Salvation is not therapy. It's not the way to deal with certain weakness or the excelling of a particular Strength. It's a displacement or exchange of our entire being with all of God. It's a call into total service of the will of the father... Galatians 2:18-20, John 1:12

Intimate Issues:

By Dr. Olubusola Olufemi

Intimate issues part 1
Intended For Love:

Sex within the marriage of a man and a woman who love each other can be like a precious stone shining and sparkling in the perfect setting.

But what if you're married and no longer love your partner? Is it possible to change your feelings? Is there any hope of finding sexual fulfillment together in that state of mind and circumstance?

The answer is a simple; yes, you can change your feelings and yes, there's still hope of finding sexual fulfillment with your mate.

As multitudes about the true meaning of love and you will get thousands of definitions. Even the Oxford dictionary takes five pages but still didn't succeed. Obviously, the world has no clear-cut definition of love. The meaning varies according to individual experiences and the purpose and viewpoints. Love can be PASSION, AFFECTION, ROMANTIC FEELINGS, FRIENDSHIP, INFATUATION, And FODNESS, and OR COMBINATION OF THOSE QUALITIES. The way the WORLD uses it, includes an expectation of getting something in return.

My reference always is from the Bible and my favorite is Eph. 5: 22-33 the complete meaning and the purpose of LOVE. Love in totality and not expecting anything in return! Emotion does not and will not sustain a marriage. There are those glooming, gray, cold moorings of life when we awake weary and lifeless. Don't ever be a HELPLESS SLAVE TO LOVE OR ANY OTHER EMOTION. IN COMMITMENT and service to each other, we are bind together through shared happiness, and trouble, but we WIN THOSE MOMENTS AND BATTLES TOGETHER.

YOU WONDER WHY YOU ARE LONELY AND SOMETIMES MISERABLE OR UNHAPPY. God designed you to long for the opposite sex! We are designed in a way that we can never be satisfied with the mere physical and physiological relief in sex. As designed by God, we are to complement and complete each other. It is in marriage that all the emotions of loving increase and multiply. We find our greatest satisfaction in becoming ONE with our beloved, in both possessing and serving each other.

What It Means to Have Abundant Blessing In Christ Concluding Part 1B

By Apostle Stanley Nwandu

We know there are some things that can only come from God, not Wal-Mart. God gives peace that passes all understanding. Jesus and Paul promise there will be trouble in the life of a believer. Some of this trouble comes to everyone

The rain falls on the just and the unjust (Matthew 5:45).

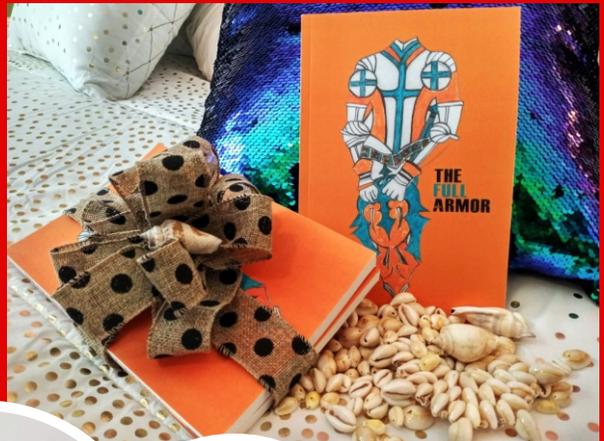

Actually, some believers deal with some problems because of our relationship with Christ. Their new life in Christ costs them physical and materials abundance; yet, Jesus says we have abundant life!

Always, we are promised a deep abiding peace. This peace is beyond what we can work up on our own by breathing deeply and counting to ten. And have you noticed that peace during these times is the most outrageous blessing ever?

Abundant Opportunity & Responsibility
One way of viewing abundant life is to see when people have been changed by the power of Christ; they live a different life, which affects all aspects of their experience. In missiology, we call that "redemption and lift."

This isn't just true individually, but can also be on a cultural level.

WHAT IT MEANS TO HAVE ABUNDANT BLESSING IN CHRIST: PART 2 A.

By Apostle Stanley Nwandu

Spiritual change, accompanied by better decisions, does often lead to better circumstances financially, sometimes it gets you arrested and martyred, so don't miss the point here. However, this is what the book of Proverbs touches on many times. Good decisions, often undertaken because of spiritual decisions, leads to greater prosperity.

Here are a few examples:

"Honor the Lord with your possessions and with the first produce of your entire harvest; then your barns will be completely filled, and your vats will overflow with new wine." (Proverbs 3:9-10) "Go to the ant, you slacker! Observe its ways and become wise. Without leader, administrator, or ruler, it prepares its provisions in summer; it gathers its food during harvest." (Proverbs 6:6-8) "The diligent hand will rule, but laziness will lead to forced labor." (Proverbs 12:24) "The slacker craves, yet has nothing, but the diligent is fully satisfied." (Proverbs 13:4)

So, that's not the prosperity gospel, but greater prosperity can come from a gospel-centered life and worldview. It's not because of our "seed faith," but because we see our faith lived out in a new kind of life.

While everything in my financial life may not be increasing in measurable ways, the gospel is truly prosperous.

In other words, don't get hung up on money when you see the word "prosperous." James 1:17 tells us every good and perfect gift comes from the Father of lights.

What about the natural increase

I don't think we need to be afraid of the fact there are times when people are blessed materially in Scripture, sometimes even in response to their acts of faith. The question is, "Is this norm, a common occurrence, or is it the exception?"

Maybe we should ask why God blesses some with more material things than He does others. Is He rewarding faithfulness with more opportunity? Is God trying to show faithfulness in some people through the fact they don't have as many resources as others?

Maybe we should ask why God blesses some with more

We want to be thankful for what God has given us and we want to recognize that God blesses others. We also shouldn't be mad at people who are blessed materially. We all must remember that we're blessed—as Abraham was—to be a blessing.

When we live this way, we will become conduits of the blessing of God. Some Christians seem to think God has made them containers, complete with a lid. A container stores resource, but a conduit delivers them. We should continually be pouring out into others what God is pouring out into us.

The main points:

Acknowledging that people prosper when they are changed by the gospel because they become better at their jobs is obvious. That's a form of Christian prosperity.

Believing that God can and does bless financially for His own purposes makes sense—and we should respond as those who are blessed by being a blessing.

The key is understand that we will not automatically receive materials blessing and to acknowledge that we can be remarkable blessed, and live an abundant life, in the midst of difficult circumstances. Poverty and persecution cannot overcome the prosperity that God provides for us in Christ.

Abundant Life

Abundant life is not about what we have. It's not about what we get. It's not about what we claim. Ultimately, abundant life is about what we receive as a gift from the Lord and to live knowing we are stewards of the blessings of God.

It's not a sin to be rich (though it might be missing the point if we die rich). Furthermore, stewardship is not measure by what we have received, but by what we have given.

At the end of the day, perhaps that is how we know we have an abundant life—when we have shared our life with others. When we have enough of the blessings of God (mercy, peace, love, grace, wisdom, etc.) to share with our others, and then actually do it; that's when we truly have abundant life. To be continued in the next edition.

The ABCs Of Jesus You Need To Know
IMPROVING YOUR LIFE WITH JESUS
Promise Okon

Enwoho is a real estate professional, businessman and community father-figure in Aquibom, Nigeria with a passion to teach. He empowers young men to unity against struggles in his local area. Miriam is a prophetic worshiper, teacher, and local community mother-at heart for local Atlanta, GA with a passion for healing, restoration and change against racism in the USA. Our beautiful daughter Makeena is an artist, dancer, and entrepreneur for the arts also located in Atlanta, GA. We are uniting as a family to increase our efforts in both communities from Nov 2019 to Aug 2021 to begin ministering and transforming together. The word of the Lord says, "1 can put 1000 but 2 can put 10,000 to flight". We plan to give back in both communities by increasing employment, business education, housing, and offering products needed for your home that are affordable to the poor, young and disabled.

Thank you for all your support in us and the ministry God has given us.

-Evangelists Mr. & Mrs. Okon
